A Tale of A Lady and A City

If you ever come to Donauwörth, you will find on each entrance to the city a striking sign adorned with the beautiful signature of Käthe Kruse.

As one of the most famous and revered women in German history, Käthe Kruse was a fledgling and inspiring actress, a fearless girl who triumphed over adversity, a woman whose miraculous life was firmly rooted in love, an extraordinary and compassionate entrepreneur and a true artist in every sense of the word who made a profound and everlasting impression on our hearts.

Founded in 1911 in Germany, the Käthe Kruse® brand - the originator of the soft doll manufacturer - survived the raging flames of two world wars. Combining the unique view of an artist with the soulfulness of a performing actress, Käthe captured the purity of childhood, and opened up a new epoch of classic doll production.

In the 1900s, when ceramic dolls dominated the market, Käthe longed to present her daughter with a doll whose cheeks were just as soft as her own, so using some readily available materials (including cotton fabric, a potato and sandy soil) she created a lovely toy that not only delighted her daughter, but later went on to become incredibly popular, inspiring Käthe to make more dolls for the local market.

Setting up a factory, placing emphasis on craftsmanship and establishing a brand that would dominate the century, Käthe never lost sight of her mission statement: "The hand follows the heart." Handcraft and with every product that she made, giving a piece of love, was very important to her. Fast forward a century, and Käthe Kruse® has become a symbol for integrity, quality, nature and age-appropriate early development. Every Käthe Kruse® doll is developed by elite designers in Donauwörth, Germany, and utilises the best, premium quality materials in the world, complying with the highest European and American safety standards in the process. Today, Käthe Kruse® classical dolls are highly-sought after treasures for doll collectors all over Europe.

WALDORF

Käthe Kruse ist der exklusiv lizenzierte Hersteller textilen Waldorfspielzeuges.
Käthe Kruse is the exclusive licensed manufacturer of textile Waldorf toys.

Claudia Kuhn (Designer) about her Waldorf dolls:

"As child I played dreamily in my magical world of fantasy. My favorite place was my grandmother's enchanted garden with my beloved dolls. I wished nothing more than my favorite doll would come alive, warm and soft, especially during the night. She became real in my fantasy. Warm, soft dolls which don't hurt when I hugged them in bed - this I found in Waldorf dolls.

Let me tell you a secret. Still today every little Waldorf child is for me a unique, living being and tells me, when I listen, to its' stories."
